But the other evening on a BMT platform at Times Square, a violinist offered selections from Bach and Paganini with style and mastery. Between numbers, he kept up a friendly line of patter about the music and the fun of playing for a subway crowd.	False		1984-11-14	TX 1-466753

Its assertion that "racism appears to be a major factor" in police-community relations here has merit, but it's a far cry from earlier charges that police brutality was not only systemic but "condoned" by the city. The disappointment was not in who won and who lost. It was in the continuation of a decade-long stalemate between partisans of statehood and those of commonwealth status, and the seeming indifference of the average Puerto Rican to the choice. The program faded but the idiom lingers on. Now, since June, we have had "Ghostbusters," the movie about some amiable hustlers who exorcise mysterious spirits from much of Manhattan. Even people who didn't see the film have seen its logotype - a ghost, under a red circle crossed by the diagonal slash that says Stop. This time, it's the logotype that lingers on. More than lingers: flourishes. It's turning out to be the most copied bit of iconography since we all learned how to H New York. The imitations of Ghostbusters are coming on like gangbusters. The Presidential campaign brought Fritzbusters and Reagan Busters. Teen-age thugs in California who beat up vagrants who sleep under bridges pronounce themselves Trollbusters. Pan Am advertises vacation Pricebusters. New York City traffic agents have become Gridlock Busters and cigarette foes are Smokebusters.	False		1984-11-21	TX 1-477216

Most economists and many business leaders believe that taxes have to be raised as part of any deficit reduction. Most Americans and many politicians want the tax system simplified and made more fair. And President Reagan wants to press for a tax reform that does not violate his promise to raise taxes only as a last resort.	False		1984-11-21	TX 1-477216

But ask millions of New Yorkers to name their backyards and they're apt to answer "the Coleman Square playground," or "J. J. Byrne Memorial." Coleman Square and J. J. Byrne, not to mention Jackson Square, Rainey and Leif Ericson, are 5 of the city's 1,077 neighborhood parks. Far too many of them have fallen into disrepair. The once-inviting places to take a toddler, sit in the sun, play cards or shoot a few baskets have become slums of graffiti and litter.	False		1984-11-20	TX 1-464692

Three centuries of scientific literature, all anecdotal, have had her biting off the head of an amorous male, thus triggering some rather satisfactory automatic reflexes on his part. Having had her fill of pleasure, the story went, she then had her fill of him, as dinner. A neurophysiologist named W. Jackson Davis says, however, that the female praying mantis is actually no more lethal than a saucy wench. Mr. Davis, according to The Washington Post, put 30 pairs of males and females in laboratory cages, trained video cameras on them and waited for the decapitations. Instead, a frame-by-frame analysis revealed a courtship ritual that is, he said, "a lovely thing to see." Some females, in fact, encouraged their suitors by what in another species would be called knee-tickling	False		1984-11-21	TX 1-464688

Finally proving whether this is possible may be the only value of the Senator's far-fetched junket. Somehow it has become a chestnut of the space age that the Great Wall, stretching 3,750 miles, is the only man-made structure visible from space, even from the moon. The claim pops up, irrepressibly. The weather turns cold, and people with nowhere else to go flood into city shelters in record numbers. Children of homeless families, hoping for places in crowded hotels, end up spending the night on welfare office floors. Any thoughts of 10-speed bicycles or Cabbage Patch dolls are pushed aside by needs of basic survival - a warm room, a decent meal, a comfortable bed.	False		1984-12-05	TX 1-464700

But it's not the tourists and shoppers who make the difference. It's the coats. Cities like Minneapolis and Buffalo have room for people whose size is doubled in winter. But in this landscape of density, the Winter Coat looms very large. Sometimes it's filled with down, and therefore the size of a large barrel. Sometimes it's made of a lot of tweed or camel's hair and is called a greatcoat. Sometimes it's made of fur, in which case it's seldom seen on the subway.	False		1984-12-03	TX 1-477210

There are three plans, one from the Treasury and two from Congress, all designed to spread the tax load more evenly. None deal with the most crucial need, to raise new revenue, and each angers interest groups, by closing old loopholes. As a result no reform at all may occur. But when three distinctly different sponsors come up with a similar conclusion, it's worth examining even if it's wishful. What's up?	False		1984-12-03	TX 1-477224

Does that make the key word of the 80's ignorance? Yes, at least for a 31-member panel convened by the National Endowment for the Humanities. In a report on the decline of the humanities in higher education, it finds that students can easily obtain bachelor's degrees knowing FORTRAN but not French or world history or Mozart. "Most of our college graduates remain shortchanged in the humanities," the report says, "history, literature, philosophy and the ideals and practices of the past that have shaped the society they enter." They deserve a hearing. A study of the nation's 10-year experience with the limit finds that increasing it could yield large benefits without "proportional impact on safety." An increase to 65 m.p.h. might cause an additional 500 deaths per year. But for each death travelers would save 850,000 hours - nearly 96 years - in time.	False		1984-12-05	TX 1-466755

Meet Harry Krim, Muckraking Reporter For the Chronicle. Harry Is As Handy With His Dukes As He Is With His Remington, and He Packs A .44, Just In Case. This Is An Era When Hollywood Is At Its Most Babylonian, So You Never Know When An Investigative Reporter Might Have To Waste A Troublemaker Or Two. What Turns Harry Loose Is the Murder of A Lady Friend. He Identifies Her Corpse In the Morgue and Is Not Satisfied With the Coroner'S Verdict of Accidental Death. Not When the Corpse Has the Marks of A Snakebite, the Reporter'S Search For the Perpetrator Leads Him Into the Dirty Business of Blue Movies. It'S A Serious Business, and At Least 12 Hollywoodians Will Be Bumped Off Before Harry Can Write30" To His Exclusive Story, the Author Favors Spectacular Murder Instruments. The pesticide ingredient that burst from its storage tank in the central Indian town is feared to have killed some 2,000 people. Many thousands more may be blinded or debilitated, perhaps for life. The wounded still wander the streets under the pall of funeral pyres. As the catastrophe bears witness, pesticide ingredients can be more deadly than the kindred agents of chemical warfare. It means directly weakening the nation's economic recovery. Though most analysts do not yet foresee another recession, they're agreed about three necessary precautions: Cut the Federal budget deficit, bring down interest rates and beware of protectionism. One is President Reagan's espousal of a defensive shield to protect America against Soviet missiles. The other is the thesis that a large exchange of nuclear explosions would create sooty clouds that would blot out the sun, and thus human survival. On closer inspection both ideas, of a "Star Wars" defense and of a "nuclear winter," appear increasingly uncertain.	False		1984-12-17	TX 1-495176

So there was no dissent last week when the United Nations approved a Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment. Though such declarations are routinely flouted, they nonetheless set norms by which surviving victims may shame their tormentors. For that reason alone, the United States Senate should favorably consider ratifying this convention.	False		1984-12-18	TX 1-496640

That was true in Congress, too, where some seniors hung on for decades. Things changed with the "Watergate Babies" of 1974. That year's 57 new Democratic representatives - the largest freshman class of recent times - united in a revolt that stripped several startled seniors of their committee chairmanships.
